SAFEGUARDING STRATEGIES

Deepen your knowledge of key safeguarding areas and gain new strategies to strengthen your culture

BEST PRACTICE

Network with educational safeguarding leads sharing and reflecting on best practice

‘In the past year, cases of deaths or serious harm to a child, where abuse or neglect was known, rose by a fifth. There were record numbers of online grooming and child abuse image offences in the first year of the pandemic,’

SIR PETER WANLESS, CHIEF EXECUTIVE, NSPCC, JANUARY 2022.

Staying up to date with KCSIE responsibilities and learning the lessons that strengthen our child protection practices and multi-agency working has never been more crucial. Spotting the signs, empowering our young people to make disclosures, and ensuring outstanding relationships and cultures in our schools is vital.

Join our 18th annual Child Protection in Education conference to network with leading education safeguarding practitioners and experts, unpack DfE updates, and refresh your toolkit with proven strategies and resources. Return refreshed, inspired, and equipped to implement and evidence compliant child protection procedures and an outstanding schoolwide safeguarding culture.

STATUTORY UPDATE: set your priorities for the year and ensure deep understanding of KCSIE 2022.

BEST PRACTICE: choose from key safeguarding topics to strengthen your practice and child protection.

SAFEGUARDING CULTURE: equip your pupils and staff and grow your 360° approach to keeping children safe.

NETWORK: share strategies and grow relationships with other safeguarding leaders from schools nationwide.
